TODAY: CHECK OUT THE BOOK TITLED Forty Studies That Changed Psychology AND APPROACHES TO PSYCHOLOGY

ASSIGNMENT #1 DUE Monday, JULY 24TH via Google Classroom (also, have printed notes in notebook for first day of class)

40 Studies book

Read ONE BRAIN OR TWO?

TAKE NOTES ON EACH SECTION OF THE READING. You can use a traditional outline style, Cornell notes, or any style that will help you understand the information. Include thoughts or questions with your notes in addition to summarizing the main points of each section.

ASSIGNMENT #2 DUE the first day of our class, bring printed article and assignments AND upload your written response only (not the article) to Google Classroom.

Find 1 Psychology related news article, print the article. This can be related to any topic in Psychology. Articles can be found on any credible news or journal website. On a site like newyorktimes.com, psych articles can range from MRI technology to memory to stress hormones to the impact of social networking to child development. There are many topics related to ANY ASPECT of human behavior. Choose article of interest. Please summarize the article and include your opinion in approximately 8-10 sentences. Write in 3rd person point of view and also try to write on an analytical level, not a report style. Ideas for ways to bring your writing to a more critical level in an article reaction paper include (but are not limited to):

-value of the information presented-how it can be applied-is it useful information ?

-what else does this relate to?

-how was the information obtained/who published this? Is it credible?

-Do you think this can impact a lot of people or is it specific to one group such as a culture, age group, or people in a specific profession?

These are not checklist items, just ideas for what to think about while reading.

Please be prepared to share this information in class.

ASSIGNMENT #3 DUE the first day of school, printed copy only. This is for your notebook, can be typed or hand written.

DEFINE all terms in CHAPTER 1 of the APPROACHES TO PSYCHOLOGY Textbook List words, write or type full, clear definition. Please review and become familiar with these terms.

LOOKING FORWARD TO A GREAT SCHOOL YEAR!EMAIL ANY CONCERNS OR QUESTIONSjcasaine@rbrhs.org
